Search Committee Update:

The Search Committee has been at work laying the groundwork to seek out the man who God will call to serve as the Senior Pastor for our congregation. We ask that all members and attendees participate in the process by prayerfully completing a survey to reflect the needs and priorities of our congregation. The survey will be presented on Sunday, May 1. We ask that you continue to keep the search process and our committee in your prayers. The committee currently meets every Monday evening at 7:00 PM. If possible, we ask that you pray specifically at that time each week. We plan to post a prayer sign-up sheet for designated prayer times as we move into future phases of the search process. Also pray that God will prepare us as a church body to be receptive to His leading. Please feel free to contact any member of the committee with concerns or questions.

Committee Members: Mac Wahl, Robin Souter, Keith Whiteneck, Marcia Shewey, Kory Unruh

The family of Marion J. Wichert want our church family to know that he went to be with the Lord on Tuesday, April 19. Many of you remember him and are related to this family. Marion was raised in the Fairview community and has lived in Kansas for many years. He had a short bout with liver cancer. His celebration of life service was held at the Buhler M.B. Church, Buhler, Kansas, on Saturday morning, April 23. He is survived by his wife and family and will be greatly missed.

News has come concerning a serious illness to a friend and relative of the church family. Harold Wichert, Hooker, Oklahoma. He solicits our prayerful concern. His telephone number is (580) 652-2168. His address is Box 731, Hooker, OK 73945
