Bronze Serpent

Numbers 21: 4-9

tells that bitter complaining against God and Moses by the Israelites led to punishment from the Lord. Fiery serpents were sent among them, biting them, causing many to die.

Once the Israelites repented, Moses prayed to the Lord for deliverance. The Lord instructed Moses to make a bronze serpent, set on a pole. If any Israelite was bitten, they would only need to look up at the bronze serpent to live.

Jesus said,
"As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life."
