Church Family, over a recent six day stretch, you have ministered to three families among us in their time of loss. Many extra hours have been graciously given to care for these families. I know, I watched the Dining Hall Committee, Custodial Staff, Deacon Ministry, Musicians, Sound and Video teams give many extra hours during this short time. I want to publically express my appreciation to you. You are a great encouragement to many, especially to these families but most importantly, God is receiving glory. Thank you! Pastor Brad

Women's Enrichment committee is planning a women's retreat for the ladies of our church. The dates are April 15-16. Our speaker will be Suzie Eller from Proverbs 31 ministries and worship will be led by "Forgiven" from Enid. We will be staying in Stillwater at the new Holiday Inn. Cost for the retreat is $120. Registration forms are on the Women's Enrichment table. Please turn in your form to Cindy Bartel by March 30.

The love that has been shown to us during the loss of our mother and grandmother through cards, flowers, food, phone calls, kind words and hugs is immeasurable. Thank you to those that met our needs during the service, from Pastor Brad, those that did the sound, video and music and to those that prepared a meal for our family. Thank you Brothers & Sisters for loving and caring for us. We are so grateful for all of you.

-The Lovella Ewald Family.

You are encouraged to take five minutes and read the qualifications and duties of the deacons on page 9-10 in the Faith/Function.
